

Study notes and questions/Lesson 6

Glance back through these eight beatitudes.

- Do we have a humble spirit before God and before brother or sister?
- Do we mourn for our sins and the sins of our brother and the suffering of others?
- Do we control our emotions in appropriate ways toward others?
- Do we hunger and thirst for the righteousness of God, knowing his word and his will?
- Do we demonstrate mercy to those around us?
- Does God look at your heart and say to himself it is pure before me?
- Are we peacemakers or are we provokers?
- Are we persecuted because of righteousness as we stand for the will of God and share our faith?

Discussion thoughts

Colossians 1:10

Walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God;

1. Choose and share one or two of the beatitudes that you would like to improve on in your relationships.
2. What are one or two beatitudes that are strengths of yours in your relationships?
3. Are you a disciple that quickly responds to Gods nudging for change or is it more of a process that takes time?
